CONTENTS OF VOL. XXIX.

SUMMARIES OF POLITICS.

To Louis le Desiré, 1.

To Mr. Strong, Governor of the State of Massachusetts, 33.

Spain, 65, 140.

Commotions in Ireland, 70.

Letter I. to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, 97.

Speech of Louis, 102.

Letter II. to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, on Quack Remedies, 129.

France, 144.

Letter III. to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, on Real Remedies, 161.

To the Editor of the Agricultural Magazine, on the subject of Potatoes, 193.

To Governor Strong, on the Persecutions of the Protestants, 225.

Letter IV. to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Marquis of Buckingham, Mr. Bennet, &c. 257.

Letter V. to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, on the Reduction of the Property Tax, 294.

Letter VI. ——————————, enclosing a Letter to the People of America, on the State of the Mother Country, 321.

Letter VII. ——————————, on the proposed Reduction of the Property Tax, 348.

Letter VIII. ——————————, on the conduct of the Whigs, 358.

To Messrs. Mitchell, Holt, and Irvine, of New York, 385.

Letter IX. to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, on the strange notions of the Edinburgh Review, for October last, on the subject of our Finances, 390.

REMARKS.

Letters to Lord Sheffield, 7.

Opening and Proceedings of the Chambers at Paris, 57, 82.

Sir George Prevost, 62.

Parliamentary Reform, 74.

American Literature, 175.

Public Income, &c. 204.

Plan respecting a Literary Intercouse with America, 289, 353.

Property Tax, 365.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Observations on the Letters to Lord Sheffield, 8, 41, 118.

Edinburgh Politics, 17, 186, 243, 270, 312, 376.

The Contrast, 56.

Loss of the Panguin of 18 guns, 61.

An Answer to the Question, What is Blasphemy, 76.

Price of Bread, 94, 273, 310.

Major Cartwright, Parliamentary Reform, &c. 115.

Church and State, 148.

Taxes, 190.

Public Income, 208, 255, 299.

On Lowering Rents, 212.

The Triumph of Aristocracy, 215.

Royal Blood, 216.

Political Perfidy, 217.

More Cause of Alarm for America, 220.

Fox Hunting, 222.

On Blasphemy, 219.

Apologies of Milton and Shakespeare, 253.

CONTENTS OF VOL. XXIX.

Glorious Results, 268.

Potatoes, 275, 305.

Permanent Corps, 307.

The Devil, 311.

Land Tax, 268.

Remedies, 370.

All's for the Best, 373.

On Reason in Religion, 402.

OFFICIAL PAPERS.

ROME.—Allocation of Pope Pius VII. 19.

SPAIN.—Proclamation of General Porlier, 23.

Manifesto of General Porlier, 24.

FRANCE.—Substance of the Treaty of Peace, 60

Letter of the Ministers to the King, 79.

Napoleon to the French People, 90.

General Order of the Duke of Tarentum, 126.

Marshal Ney to the Grand Allied Powers, &c. 257.

General Treaty of Peace, 277.

Documents respecting the Abolition of the Slave Trade, 380.

GERMANY.—Process Verbal of the Conference of October 2, 124.

AMERICA.—Interesting Narrative respecting the Hornet, 155.

POETRY.

Napoleon's Soliloquy in the Island of St. Helena, 154.